(verse)

D C G D
The battle's been lost, the war is not won
D C G D
An addled republic, a bitter refund
D C G
D
The business first flat earthers licking their wounds
D C G D
The verdict is dire, the country's in ruins
C G D
Providence blinked, facing the sun
C G D
Where are we left to carry on
Am7 G D
Until the day is done
A7 G D
Until the day is done
D C G D
As we've written our stories to entertain
D C G D
These notions of glory and bull market gain
D C G D
The teleprompt flutters, the power surge brings
D C G D
An easy speed message falls into routine
C G D
Providence blinked, facing the sun
C G D
Where are we left to carry on
Am7 G D
Until the day is done
A7 G D
Until the day is done
G D
A voice whispers "Son,
G D
The blessed vision comes."
G D
What have I done
G A7
What have I done
D C G D
So hold tight your babies and your guns
D C G D
Forgive us our trespasses, father and son
C G D
Providence blinked, facing the sun
C G D
Where are we left to carry on
Am7 G D
Until the day is done
A7 G D
Until the day is done
Am7 G D
Until the day is done

(C G D)
