Ruel - Someone Else?s Problem

                              tom:

             A                    Bm
It?s scary letting go
  D                  E     A     E
I know, I know, I know, I know
A                 Bm
It?s hard to be alone
    D                   E      A
But I know I?ll find a way to cope

Gbm               Bm
I thought I?d be upset
A                     E
I thought I?d have regrets
                   D
Without you in my head

Ooh
Every day?s getting better
Dbm
Now the rain finally let up
Gbm
Nobody to stress me out
You?re someone else?s problem now
Really dodged me a bullet
Dbm
And I can sleep easy knowing
Gbm
Knowing that you?re not around
D                                   A
You?re someone else?s problem now

      Dbm     Gbm
Ooh, ooh, ooh-ooh
Gbm
Ooh
       D               Dm          A
You?re someone else?s problem now
                       Bm
Nothing?s getting overblown
No one?s jealous, no one?s crying driving home

Yeah, I won?t miss the way you lied
Bm       D        E               A
And the games you played to get a rise

Gb7              Bm
   I used to be obsessed
    A               E
Now I couldn?t care less
Ever since you left

Dbm
Now the rain finally let up
Gbm
Nobody to stress me out
Dbm
And I can sleep easy knowing
Gbm
Knowing that you?re not around
D                      Ebm         A
You?re someone else?s problem now
      Dbm
Ooh, ooh, ooh-ooh
Gbm
Ooh
       D               Dm          A
You?re someone else?s problem now
        Dbm
Ooh, ooh, ooh-ooh
Gbm
Ooh
       D               Dm      A
You?re someone else?s problem
            Am       Bm
And whoever you find next
Oh I wish, I wish them all the best
