Caetano Veloso - A Little More Blue

                              tom:
                C

            C  C  Bbm
One day I had to leave my country
G  D  F
Calm beach and palm tree
C  C  Bbm
That day I couldn't even cry
G  D  F
And I forgot that outside there would be other men
C          Bb          Am           Dadd9
But today, but today, but today, I don't know why
G                    C     Bb  C  Db
I feel a little more blue than then
G                    C     Bb  C  G
I feel a little more blue than then
G                    C     Bb  C  Db
I feel a little more blue than then
                   C     Bb  C   G
I feel a little more blue than then

C  C  Bbm
The day carmen miranda died
G  D  F
They put a photograph in the magazine
C  C  Bbm
Her dead mouth with red lipstick smiled
G  D  F
And people cried, I was about ten
C          Bb          Am           Dadd9
But today, but today, but today, I don't know why
G                    C     Bb  C  Db
I feel a little more blue than then
G                    C     Bb  C  G
I feel a little more blue than then
G                    C     Bb  C  Db
I feel a little more blue than then
                   C     Bb  C   G
I feel a little more blue than then

C  C  Bbm
One morning they came around to take to jail
G  D  F
I smiled at them and said - all right
C  C  Bbm
But alone in that same day's nigth
G  D  F
I cried and cried again
C          Bb          Am           Dadd9
But today, but today, but today, I don't know why
G                    C     Bb  C  Db
I feel a little more blue than then
G                    C     Bb  C  G
I feel a little more blue than then
G                    C     Bb  C  Db
I feel a little more blue than then
                   C     Bb  C   G
I feel a little more blue than then

C  C  Bbm
One night I saw a mexican film
G  D  F
These twin brothers tryed to kill each other
C  C  Bbm
She opened her arms and got two bullets
G  D  F
And died sweetly without a sigh
C          Bb          Am           Dadd9
But tonight, but tonight, but tonight, I don't know why
G                    C     Bb  C  Db
I feel a little more blue than then
G                    C     Bb  C  G
I feel a little more blue than then
G                    C     Bb  C  Db
I feel a little more blue than then
                   C     Bb  C   G
I feel a little more blue than then
C  C  Bbm
One day I went down to the underground but
G  D  F
I missed the last train
C  C  Bbm
And now that I'm just looking around
G  D  F
I feel a little more blue than then
C          Bb          Am           Dadd9
Looking around, Look around, Look around, I don't know why
G                    C     Bb  C  Db
I feel a little more blue than then
G                    C     Bb  C  G
I feel a little more blue than then
G                    C     Bb  C  Db
I feel a little more blue than then
                   C     Bb  C   G
I feel a little more blue than then
