12 Stones - It Was You

                tom:
                G
                 C
It was You
      G               Dm
That showed me who I am
    F                 C
And taught me how to stand
    G               F     G
For what I know is real

      Am
I was sick of all the pain
F                              C
Tired of all the shame that I felt
        G
But You showed me a way
   Am
To never have a doubt
    F                     C
And always to believe in myself
       G
Now I see

         C
It was You
     G                Dm
That showed me who I am
    F                 C
And taught me how to stand
    G               F   G
For what I know is real

        C         G
Now I'm breathing for the first time
        Dm       F
And I'm leaving all this behind
       C           G              F   G
I've become what I am because of You
       Am  F  C  G
It was You

         Am
I'm so sorry 'bout the ways
    F                     C
But I can't take away my past
        G
But You loved me anyway
    Am
And now I wanna do
F                         C
Everything for You that I can
     G
Even though it won't erase
    Am      F                C
The foolish things that I've done
                G
Things that blinded me
    Am
But now I see

          C
It was You
     G               Dm
That showed me who I am
    F                 C
And taught me how to stand
    G               F     G
For what I know is real

        C         G
Now I'm breathing for the first time
        Dm       F
And I'm leaving all this behind
         C         G              F     G
And I'll stand for what I know is real

Eb              F               C
   So how can I make this up to You
    G                           Eb
I'll fight and I'll push and I'll strive
             F                  C
Now that I'm living my life for You
    G                           Eb
I'll fight and I'll push and I'll strive
          F
Can't You see?

       C
It was You
     G                Dm
That showed me who I am
    F                 C
And taught me how to stand
    G               F     G
For what I know is real

        C         G
Now I'm breathing for the first time
        Dm       F
And I'm leaving all this behind
     C              G             F   G
I'll become what I am because of You

      C                       G
I can see the writing on the wall
                        D               F
As time begins to crawl away from me
           C           G             F   G
And I've become what I am because of You
       Am
It was You
