Intro: C G Am F x2 or

Guitar 1

C G
She's a good girl, she's daddy's favorite,
Am F
He saved for Harvard, he knows she'll make it.
C G
She's good at school, she's never truant,
Am F
She can speak French, I think she's fluent.
C G
Every night she studies hard in her room,
Am F
At least that's what her parents assume.

C G
But she sneaks out her window to meet with her boyfriend,
Am F
Here's what she told me the time that I caught them.

Chorus:

C G
She said to me, forget what you thought,
Em F
Cause good girls are bad girls that haven't been caught.
C G
So just turn around and forget what you saw,
Em F
Cause good girls are bad girls that haven't been caught.

Verse 2/Pre chorus:

C G
She's a good girl, a straight A student,
C G
I swear she lives in that library,
Am F
But if you ask her she'll say, that's where you'll find me.
C G
But if you look then you won't find her there,
Am F
She may be clever but she just acts too square
C G
Cause in the back of her room where nobody looks,
Am F
She'll be with her boyfriend, she's not reading books.

Chorus:

C G
She said to me, forget what you thought,

Em F
Cause good girls are bad girls that haven't been caught.

C G
So just turn around and forget what you saw,

Em F
Cause good girls are bad girls that haven't been caught.
