 late night I think we need to get away headlights hold tight turn the radio loud (turn the radio loud) let me know where you're going I'll get you there tell the truth and I'll show you how to dare flashlights held tight we can own this town never say goodbye so kiss me kiss me and tell me that I'll see you again cos I don't know if I can let you go so kiss me kiss me kiss me I'm dying just to see you let's make tonight the best of our lives yeh close your eyes you'll be mine and it's alright take a breath noone rest till the sunrise

heartbeats so sweet when your lips touch mine we don't have to go home right now we're never gonna stop cos we're dreaming out loud we know we're gonna get it somehow
