Verse 1:
E
you throw me around like a ragdoll
B and throw me away like your cigarettes
Dbm A
then pick up the pieces of whatever's left of me
they're yours to keep
E
a million and one ways that i've tried
B
to turn it around, leave it all behind
Dbm
but every time you turn out to be A
one step ahead of me

Chorus:
E
lost in reality
B
i can feel you in the dark when i fall asleep
Dbm
all that's in my head are pictures of memories
words that you said to me
A
hey hey hailey, won't you save me?
E
bittersweet chemistry
B
i can't escape you anywhere, even in my dreams
Dbm
all that's in my head are pictures of memories
A
hey hey hailey, won't you save me?

Verse 2:
E
through all the lights in the night sky
B
you drift away then you disappear Dbm A
counting the days til i bring her back to me eventually
E
my strung out heart needs your angel eyes
B
they tear me apart and i'm hypnotized Dbm A
let's pick up the pieces of whatever's left of me
they're yours to keep
