

A R I Z O N A - Hold The Line

tom:

A

Crossbows and arrows, the smoke in the shadows

Gbm

You'll lose your mind

D

Standing on the battle line

A

Starting to choke on your heart in your throat and

Gbm

It feels just like

You can't remember how to fight

We'll crack before we shatter

We can't fall apart (Oh, oh)

We don't get to die young

Trouble keeping our head sometimes

We just have to push on

We don't get to give up this life

All the breath in your lungs

Is stronger than the tears in your eyes

And while we're here, we'll hold the line

[Solo] Gbm A D
Gbm A D

Gbm A D

Aadd9

Don't hold your hands up, it's your final stand

Gbm

Put your white flag down

D

Oh don't you surrender now

Aadd9

No hero's story, there's no blaze of glory

Gbm

But dawn only comes

At the end of the night

We'll crack before we shatter

We can't fall apart (Oh, oh)

We don't get to die young

Trouble keeping our head sometimes

We just have to push on

We don't get to give up this life

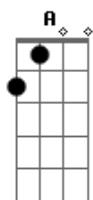

All the breath in your lungs

Is stronger than the tears in your eyes

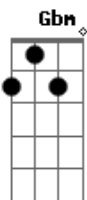

And while we're here, we'll hold the line
