

ABBA - The Day Before You Came

Tom: G

Em
I must have left my house at eight because I always do B7
My train I'm certain left the station just when it was due Em
I must have read the morning paper going into town D
And having gotten through the editorial no doubt I must have frowned G
I must have made my desk around a quarter after nine D7
With letters to be read and heaps of papers waiting to be signed C Em
I must have gone to lunch at half past twelve or so Am
The usual place the usual bunch Am
And still on top of this I'm pretty sure it must have rained B7
The day before you came Em
I must have lit my seventh cigarette at half past two B7
And at the time I never even noticed I was blue Em
I must have kept on dragging through the business of the day D
Without really knowing anything I hid a part of me away G
At five I must have left there's no exception to the rule D7
A matter of routine I've done it ever since I finished school G

The train back home again
Em Undoubtedly I must have read the evening paper then Am
Oh yes I'm sure my life was well within it's usual frame B7
The day before you came Em

Em
I must have opened my front door at eight o'clock or so B7
And stopped along the way to buy some Chinese food to go Em
G I'm sure I had my dinner watching something on TV D
There's not I think a single episode of Dallas that I didn't see G
I must have gone to bed around a quarter after ten D7
I need a lot of sleep and so I like to be in bed by then G
I must have read a while C
The latest one by Marilyn French or something in that style Am
It's funny but I had no sense of living without aim B7
The day before you came Em
And turning out the light Em
I must have yawned and cuddled up for yet another night Am
And rattling on the roof I must have heard the sound of rain B7
The day before you came Em
