

Abbey Lincoln - Daytime Friends

Tom: G

Intro: G C G C

C G C G C
And he'll tell her he's working late again
G C G C
But she knows too well there's something goin' on
G C G C
She's been neglected and she needs a friend
G C G C
So a tremblin finger dials the telephone
C G C
Lord it hurts her doing this again
G C

G C
He's the best friend that her husband ever knew when she's lonely
G C G C

G C
He's more then just a friend He's the one she longs to give her body to
Chorus

G Em C Em
Daytime friends and night time lovers hoping no one else
discovers where they go

Em Am D D7
What they do in their secret hide away
G Em C Em

C
Daytime friends and night time lovers they don't want to hurt
the others
G Em D D7

G (G C G C)
So they love in the night time and shake hands in the light of day

G C G C
When it's over there's no peace of mind
G C G C
Just a longing for the way things should have been
G C G C
And she's wondering why some men never find
G C G C
That a woman needs a lover and a friend
G Em C Em C
Daytime friends and night time lovers hoping no one else
discovers where they go
Em Am D D7
What they do in their secret hide away
G Em C Em

C
Daytime friends and night time lovers they don't want to hurt
the others
G Em D D7

G
So they love in the night time and shake hands in the light of day
G Em C Em C

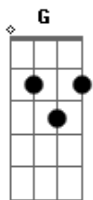

C G
Daytime friends and night time lovers hoping no one else
discovers where they go

Em Am D D7
What they do in their secret hide away
G Em C Em

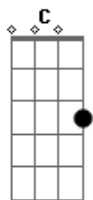

C
Daytime friends and night time lovers they don't want to hurt
the others
G Em D D7

G
So they love in the night time and shake hands in the light of day

Acordes

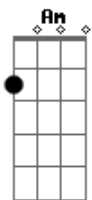

© ukulele-chords.com

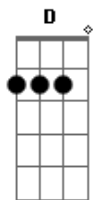

© ukulele-chords.com

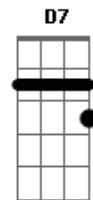

© ukulele-chords.com

© ukulele-chords.com

© ukulele-chords.com

© ukulele-chords.com