D              A              Bm
My new address is hard to remember
       Bm
So I wrote it on the back of my hand
D               A              Bm
'Cause I leave the nest, this coming December
       Bm
To make it as a grown man
D              A              Bm
I'm bout to lose my only defenders
              Bm
I'm packing up whatever I can
D              A
Been waiting for today but
Bm                   Bm
All I can think to say is

[Refrão]

G      D              Em
Oh no, don't throw out my Legos
   D                 G
What if I can't let go
 D           Em          D
What if I come back home, back home
G      D              Em

[Parte 2]

D              A                    Bm
People want shirts, with the band name on it
         Bm
And suddenly we ain't so bad
D          A              Bm
Saved up enough to rent an apartment
         Bm
But far away from mom and dad
D              A              Bm
My Christmas card looks like a mugshot
              Bm
'Cause suddenly I'm getting sad
D              A
Been waiting for today but
Bm                   Bm
All I can think to say is
