

AJR - The Dumb Song

Your world is ending soon
                            tom:
                                                                   Gm
                                                               Mine's a little better 'cause I never watch the news
Intro: Dm G C G Am
                                                                          Bb
                                                               You make my lunch today
Oh, in my he-ad
                                                               I would do it, but I couldn't work my microwave
                                                               [Pré-Refrão]
[Primeira Parte]
                                                               So, if that's what you're saying
You said with certainty
                                                               [Refrão ]
I may be the dumbest person that you've ever seen
                 Bb
You think you're hurting me
                                                               When we go down
Bet you won't believe it, but you kinda set me free
                                                               When kingdom come
(F Dm F Dm)
                                                               Don't look at me, don't look at me
[Segunda Partel
                                                               I'm iust too dumb
                                                                          Dm
                                                               I'd love to stay (Love to stay)
You've mentioned Adderall
                                                               But like you say (Like you say)
Slip this guy a sedative, he's bouncing off the wall
                                                               Don't look at me, 'cause I got nothing in my head
          Bb
"Honey, it's no big deal
                                                               (Nothing in my head)
We'll get you back to college, you can study something real"
                                                               Oh, in my he-ad
[Pré-Refrão]
                                                               ( C Am C Am )
So, if that's how you feel
                                                               You should not have done that!
                                                               ( C Am C Am )
[Refrão]
                                                               [Refrão]
When we go down
                                                                         Dm
                                                              When we go down (We go down)
When kingdom come
Don't look at me, don't look at me
                                                               When kingdom come (Kingdom come)
I'm just too dumb
                                                               Don't look at me, don't look at me
           Dm
I'd love to stay (Love to stay)
                                                               I'm much too dumb (No, too dumb)
                                                                          Dm
But like you say (Like you say)
                                                               I'd love to stay (Love to stay)
                                                                           G
Don't look at me, 'cause I got nothing in my head
                                                               But like you say (Like you say)
                                                               Don't look at me, 'cause I got nothing in my head
(Nothing in my head)
        Gm Bb
Oh, in my he-ad
                                                               (Nothing in my head)
                                                                        Gm Bb
[Terceira Parte]
                                                                        Gm Bb
Too dumb for breaking up
                                                               Oh, in my he-ad
I'd do it in person, but I'd probably mess it up
                                                               [Final]
I'll text you, that's enough
                                                               When we go down
That's how empty-head people get through shitty stuff
                                                               When kingdom come
(F Dm F Dm)
                                                               Don't look at me, don't look at me
[Quarta Parte]
                                                               I'm just too dumb
