

Alan Jackson - Another Good Reason Not To Drink

Tom: E

(intro) riff B E

(verse I)

E I woke up the other night B lyin' on the floor E

Right beside someone I'd never seen before

She said my name is juliet A

romeo you ain't B

That's another good reason not to drink E

(refrão)

E That's another good reason not to drink B

When I'm sober I'm almost A saint E

If I keep goin' on like this A

I'll end up like ole Hank B

That's another good reason not to drink E

(verse II)

I can't go see my best friend B

He said stay away E

Just because of what I said on his wedding day A

You oughta call her sherman B

'cause she look's just like a tank E

that's another good reason not to drink B

(refrão)

E B

That's another good reason not to drink E

When I'm sober I'm almost A saint E

If I keep gonin' on like this A

I'll end up like ole Hank B

That's another good reason not to drink E

(solo)

(verse III)

(bridge)

F Now I'm gonna sue the city about that policeman C

Last night as I left the bar F

He stepped right on my hand

He said are you drunk or blind Bb

I said let me think F

And that's another good reason not to drink F

(refrão)

F That's another good reason not to drink C

When I'm sober I'm almost a saint F

If I keep goin' on like this Bb

I'll end up like ole Hank F

That's another good reason not to drink C

Baby let me in I'm freezin' F

And another good reason not to drink C

(violin solo)

(refrão)

(fade out)

Acordes

