

Alan Jackson - Hard Hat And a Hammer

Tom: E

Intro: 2x: E A B

E A B
Lace-up boots and faded jeans
E A B
A homemade sandwich, a half jug of tea
E A B
Average Joe, average pay
E A B
Same ol' end and same ol' day

E A B
But there's nothing wrong with a hard hat and a hammer
E A B
Kind of glue that sticks this world together
E A B7
Hands of steel and cradle of the Promised Land
(E A B) (2x)
God bless the working man

E A B
All week long making a living
E A B
Life keeps takin', he keeps giving
E A B
Behind the scene, below the grade
E A B
Hardly noticed but part of everything

E A B
But there's nothing wrong with a hard hat and a hammer
E A B
Kind of glue that sticks this world together
E A B7

Hands of steel and cradle of the Promised Land
(E A B) (2x) E A B7
God bless the working man

E A B
He gives his life then fades away
E A B
Another young man takes his place
E A B
Average Joe, average pay
E A B
Same ol end, same old' day

E A B
But there's nothing wrong with a hard hat and a hammer
E A B
Kind of glue that sticks this world together
E A B7
Hands of steel and cradle of the Promised Land

E A B
No, there's nothing wrong with a hard hat and a hammer
E A B
Kind of glue that sticks this world together
E A B7
Hands of steel and cradle of the Promised Land
E A
God bless the working man

B E A
The working man
B E A B
Oh, the working man
E
and woman.

Acordes

