

Alan Jackson - If Jesus Walked The Word Today

Tom: E
Intro: E A E A E B E

E A E A E B E
If Jesus walked the world today, He'd probably be a Hillbilly

A B
Common man of men and the King of many
E A E
He'd lay his hands on his brother man, save us all from the

sinnin

E A G E
If Jesus walked the world today, He'd probably be a Hillbilly

Instrumental: E A E B E

E A E
If He was here today I bet he'd drive a Chevrolet

A B
Workin at the plant drawin workers pay

E A E A
He'd preach in some little country church outside of the city

E A E
If Jesus walked the world today, He'd probably be a Hillbilly

E A E
If Jesus walked the world today, He'd probably be a Hillbilly

A Bm
Common man of men and the King of many

E A E
He'd lay his hands on his brother man, save us all from the

sinnin

E A G E
If Jesus walked the world today, He'd probably be a Hillbilly

Instrumental: E A E B E

E A B
His long hair and sandled feet would be in style

E A B
Surround himself with the good old boys to tell His tale

E A E
He'd have a mighty cross tattoo on his hands by the nail

holes that killed Him

B A E
If Jesus walked the world today, He'd probably be a Hillbilly

A E
If Jesus walked the world today, He'd probably be a Hillbilly

A Bm
Common man of men and the King of many

E A E
He'd lay his hands on his brother man, save us all from the

sinnin

E A G E
If Jesus walked the world today, He'd probably be a Hillbilly

Instrumental: E A E B E

E A E
Some folks would say it wasn't really Him

A
You know they'd probably send him off to some kind of looney bin

E A E
They wouldn't hang Him on a cross, but they'd find some way to condem Him

A E
If Jesus walked the world today, He'd probably be a Hillbilly

A E
If Jesus walked the world today, He'd probably be a Hillbilly

A Bm
Common man of men and the King of many

E A E
He'd lay his hands on his brother man, save us all from the

sinnin

E A G E
If Jesus walked the world today, He'd probably be a Hillbilly

E
He'd be a Hillbilly, yeah, He'd be a Hillbilly

E
Id bet Jesus be a Hillbilly, Lord, you know He'd be a Hillbilly !

Acordes

