

Alan Jackson - Knew All Along

Tom: D

Intro: G D A Bm
G A D

G D A Bm
The things you taught me just a little while

G D A Bm
Would've taken me a hundred years

G D A Bm
I can't imagine travelin' these miles

G D A Bm
Without somebody like you here

G D A Bm
I guess I knew all along, he'd take his angels home

G D A Bm
'Cause he loves them too much to let them stay

G D A Bm
I guess I knew all along, he'd take his angels home

G D A Bm
But I didn't know it was gonna be today

G D A Bm
I remember the places that we've been

G D A Bm
The little things we used to do

G D A Bm
Looking back now that's when I began

G D A Bm
To realize that I'm a lot like you

G D A Bm
I guess I knew all along, he'd take his angels home

G D A Bm
'Cause he loves them too much to let them stay

G D A Bm
I guess I knew all along, he'd take his angels home

G D A Bm
But I didn't know it was gonna be today

(G D A Bm)

(G D A)

(G D A Bm)

(G A D)

G D A Bm
Friends and family help to pass the time

G D A Bm
I'm thumbing through pictures of you

G D A Bm
Feelin' lonesome, missin' you and cryin'

G D A Bm
That's not what you'd want me to do

G D A Bm
I guess I knew all along, he'd take his angels home

G D A Bm
'Cause he loves them too much to let them stay

G D A Bm
I guess I knew all along, he'd take his angels home

G D A Bm
But I didn't know it was gonna be today
