Tom: G

This is a great Alan Jackson song! enjoy

C Well she puts her dancing shoes on every night G
 And comes alive there in the smoke beneath the neon lights C
 And she don't like those hurtin' songs G
 Cause she's already lived 'em Am
 She don't get the blues she gives 'em C
 Well she checks her broken heart there at the door G
 She ain't looking for romance, she danced that dance before C
 Well I pity the next poor fool that gets caught up in her rhythm Am
 Cause she don't get the blues, she gives 'em G

She's been on the losing end of love too many times Am
 And she ain't gonna go for anything you've got in mind C
 So before you start let me impart D
 These few words of wisdom Am
 She don't get the blues, she gives 'em C
 She's been on the losing end of love too many times Am
 And she ain't gonna go for anything you've got in mind D
 So before you start let me impart Am
 These few words of wisdom C
 She don't get the blues, she gives 'em G
 Na she don't get the blues, lord she gives 'em C
