

Alan Jackson - Someday

Tom: C

She C looked me in the G eye and said, "It's F over." C
 I can't take this F heartache anymore." G C
 She C said, "Don't tell me G lies and try to F please me.
 I've F heard it all so many G times before."
 And I C took her by the G arm and said, "Don't F leave me!
 There's F nothing in this G world I wouldn't C do.
 Just C give me time, I'll be the G man you've F needed."
 She F said, "I wish that I could G take that for the C truth."
 And I F said, "Someday, I'll get my C life straight."
 And she C said, "It's too late; what's G done is done."
 Oh, sometimes F someday just never comes."

And I told her, "Someday!"
 She said, "I Am can't wait;
 Cause sometimes G someday F just never G comes." C
 She said, "All I've G ever Bm wanted was to F love you,
 And somewhere F deep inside me I still G do.
 But now I G think it's Bm time I stop F believing,
 Cause I'm F never gonna see a G change in you.
 And I F said, "Someday, I'll get my C life straight." C
 And she said, "It's G too late; what's G done is done." C
 And I told her, "Someday!" F
 She said, "I Am can't wait;
 Cause sometimes G someday F just never G comes.
 Oh, sometimes G someday F just never G comes." C C (Stop)
