

Alanis Morissette - Numb

Tom: F

I feel smothered and encumbered and defeated and drawn disappointed over-extended and frustrated and shaken this over-giving over-loving this caretaking goes on with no chance of intermission I'll be checked out I'll be gone

Have to remove myself from sensation

Here comes a feeling, I run from the feeling and reach for the drug (Chorus)

can't sit with this feeling, I'd rather be flying and comfortably numb

I feel anxious I am nervous I am bored
I'm overwhelmed rather be out of my gourd
Have to remove myself from sensation

(Chorus)

I am lonely I feel hungry and unloved
I feel angry I am livid need a hug
