

Alanis Morissette - Offer

Tom: D

SLOWLY QUIET BALLAD.

There's a continuous reef, it sounds something like this:

D G

This reef goes along the whole song, and the song is only in two chords, D major and G major, so it's quite easy.

D
who
G
who am I to be blue
G
looking my family and fortune
G
looking my friends and my house

who
G
who am I to feel deadend
G
who am I to feel spent
G
looking my health and my money

D
and where
G
where do I go to feel good
G
why do I still look outside me
G
when clearly I've seen it won't work

CHORUS:

D
is it my calling to keep on when I'm unable
D
and is it my job to be selfless extraordinary
D
and my generosity has me disabled
D

by this my sense of duty to offer

D
and why
G
why do I feel so ungrateful
G
me who is far beyond survival
G
me who see life as an oyster

CHORUS:

D
is it my calling to keep on when I'm unable
D
and is it my job to be selfless extraordinary
D
and my generosity has me disabled
D
by this my sense of duty to offer

D
and how
G
how dare I rest on my laurels
G
how dare I ignore an outstretched hand
G
how dare I ignore a third world country

CHORUS:

D
is it my calling to keep on when I'm unable
D
and is it my job to be selfless extraordinary
D
and my generosity has me disabled
D
by this my sense of duty to offer

who
G
who am I to be woo.

END. Peace and love to you all.
