Alanis Morissette - Sandbox Love

```
[Pré-Refrão]
                           tom:
                                                              С
                                                                            D
               G
                                                              Ooh into what really happened
Intro: G Em Em D
                                                                                D
                                                              Ooh I've tried to block it out and [Primeira Parte]
                                                                                 D
G
                                                              Here we go into the danger zone
Catapult me out
                                                              Em D C
But this time with a friend
Fm
Of this fantasy
                                                              [Refrão]
                                                              G
                                                              Awkward as fuck
G
                                                              Em Em
Sexy as fuck
Take me back in time
Fm
Start all this from scratch
                                                              C
                                                              Sacred as fuck
         Am
Please go slowly
                                                               Am
                 Em D
                                                              Us in our sandbox
        G
Cos I'm apprehensive
                                                              D G
                                                              Sandbox love
[Pré-Refrão]
                                                              (GEmD)
(GEmD)
              D
Ooh into what really happened
                                                              [Ponte]
      D
Ooh I try not to remember
                  D
                                                                  Am
Here we go into the danger zone
                                                              Cos I have not been ready for this challenge
Em D C
But this time with a friend
                                                              My soul is shy when you ask for more contact
                                                              I close my eyes and picture myself somewhere else
[Refrão]
                                                              [Terceira Parte]
Awkward as fuck
Fm
         Em
Precious as fuck
                                                              Thanks for showing up
                                                              Em
Scary as fuck
                                                              Thanks for proving them all wrong
        Am
                                                                             Am
Us in our sandbox
                                                              Cos you are my love
                                                                             G Em D
D
                                                              And you are not them
Sandbox love
(G Em Em D)
                                                              [Refrão]
[Segunda Parte]
                                                              G
                                                              Healing as fuck
                                                              Fm
I'm holding my breath
                                                              Playful as fuck
Em
                                                              Present as fuck
Smoke came from these ears
Am
Said he can't control it
                                                                      Am
                                                              Us in our sandbox
C G Em D
That it was my fault
                                                              D G
Sandbox love
Take me back to square one
                                                              Awkward as fuck
 Em
                                                              Fm
And clear this flashing back
                                                              Sweet as fuck
  Am
Please tread lightly
C G Em D
                                                              Here as fuck
                                                                       Am
                                                              Us in our sandbox
Cos I'm an open affront
                                                              D G
                                                              Sandbox love
Acordes
```

D G

