

Alanis Morissette - Smiling

tom:

Cm

This is a life of extremes

Both sides are slippery and enticing

These are my places off the rails

(G Cm)

This loose recollection of the falling

Barely remember who I failed

I was just trying to keep it together

(Cm C)

[Refrão]

This is the first wave of my white flag

This is the sound of me hitting bottom

This is my surrender if that's what you call it

And the anatomy of my crash

And I keep on smiling

Keep on moving

Can't stand still

(Cm)

Me the ceiling-less great achiever

Me the notorious perfect mother

Lord to the ends of overwhelm

(Cm C)

[Refrão]

This is the first wave of my white flag

This is the sound of me hitting bottom

This is my surrender if that's what you call it

And the anatomy of my crash

And I keep on smiling

Keep on moving

Can't stand still

(Cm)

Such pretty forks in the road

On this continuum I've been bouncing

Life-flashing promise before my eyes

(Cm C)

[Refrão]

This is the first wave of my white flag

This is the sound of me hitting bottom

This is my surrender if that's what you call it

And the anatomy of my crash

And I keep on smiling

Keep on moving

Can't stand still

(Cm G)

Can't stand still
