tom:
Intro: G Am C G

G
Well I guess it's just, just about time Am
C
We get ourselves on the road
G
And drive away

G Am
Don't wanna see any of the people we know
C
No not any more
G
Well, at least for a while, while

G Am
The sun is up and the wind blows in through the windows
C
It smells like rain
G
In summer time

G Am
I'm counting clouds and she's talking to me
C
Her voice is sweet
Cm
But she has pain

D Em C
And she says, her heart is too weak for this world
C G
Oh, the things that we have heard
G
I know

D Em C
And she says, she feels like she's running away
F C
Well, baby aren't you?

G Am
We'll take a picture and live inside it
C
We'll never be old
G
Nothing will change

G Am
We'll lose ourselves and we'll never find them
C
And then we'll start
Cm
All over again

D Em C
And she says, she wants to be a mother someday
C G
But that's still far away
G
She knows

D Em C
And she says, as she pulls back and lays
F C
We still can find our way

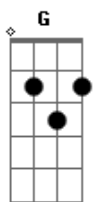

(G Am C G)
(G Am C G)

D Em C
And she says, she wants to be a mother someday
C G
But bring a child into this world
G
I don't know

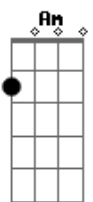

D Em C
And she says, she feels like she's running away
C G
Well baby aren't you
G
I know

D Em C
And she says, as she pulls back and lays
