                                                          Because I know people die
                                                                         Em
(forma dos acordes no tom de G )
                                                           I saw it on the news one day
Capostraste na 1ª casa
                                                                   D
                                                          When the towers fell down
                                                          September's not the same place now, same place now, same
This is where I broke my wrist
Where I thought I could fly
          Em G
Thinking I was Superman
                                                          Now tell me who you wanna be
So you know you can't cry
                                                          Because you grow up too fast
                                                                        Em
                                                           Cut my hair and sag my jeans
Cause I wanted to be just like them
And save my city from crime
                                                          And never show up to class
I wanted to be just like them, just like them, just like, them Get ready cause it's time to leave
                  Em
                                                           So pack up your bags
Campbell's chicken noodle soup
                                                          And go be who you wanna be, wanna be
When you stay home from school
