

Alex Albino - Lion's Heart

tom:

C

If you try to understand a lion's heart

You're gonna find yours

Now you started to see that your future is going

And you're gonna try to fight back

But you're a little bit tired to run and run

But you already learned it and you won't forget

Suddenly, the smells are different from your whole life

So you just want to breathe, breathe, breathe that

The colors seem bright now

Your thoughts may be right

By your intuition. wild
