

Alex Roe - Enough

tom:

Db (forma dos acordes no tom de A)

Capostrate na 4ª casa

Sitting in the dark, all night fighting shadows
 And the urge to call you up hits me like an arrow
 It ain't the whiskey talking or the loneliness I'm feeling
 It's the memories all the little things that keep me from healing

I'd give up all the days I got left on this earth
 'Cause without you I don't know what they're worth, no

I'd give it all for you if you let me
 This heart don't have a home without you in it, no
 I'd stand before you, as a man who's been broken

Truer words never spoken

Is that enough?

Is that enough

For your love?

The flame I keep inside burns through rainy nights
 Even though I tried to put it out so many times
 Good books on the table, so I can get some advice

I can't rest my heavy head, cause I'm still lost in your eyes

I'd give up all the days I got left on this earth
 'Cause without you I don't know what they're worth

I'd give it all for you if you let me
 This heart don't have a home without you in it, no
 I'd stand before you, as a man who's been broken

Truer words never spoken, no

Is that enough?

Is that enough

For your love?

I'd give it all for you if you let me
 This heart don't have a home without you in it, no
 I'd stand before you, as a man who's been broken

Truer words never spoken, no

Is that enough?

Is that enough

Is that enough?

Is that enough

For your love?
