

Alexander Biggs - Tidal Wave

Tom: C

Intro: F Am F Am F C G C F

You are needed now

While you're far away

I can feel you frown like I feel you pulling all your strings

I am distant now

I am far away

and it feels like I'm the one living in outer space

I've been outside of myself,

I'm living miles away

You are the moon and I'm a tidal wave

and all that I touch is gonna wash away

You are the moon and I'm a tidal wave

Yeah, the nights are wild and the morning is a slow decay

You are needed now

more than anything and I wish that you could see the love I've got to give.

I am distant now

I am underground

And your gravity is crushing as it ways me down

You are the moon and I'm a tidal wave

and all that I touch is gonna wash away

You are the moon and I'm a tidal wave

Yeah, the nights are wild and the morning is a slow decay

( G C F )

Got that white water fever running through my bones

You are the moon and I'm a tidal wave

and all that I touch is gonna wash away

You are the moon and I'm a tidal wave

Yeah, the nights are wild and the morning is a slow decay.
