

Alicia Keys - Blended Family (What you do for love)

there ain't nothing I won't do for us
   [INTRO] Bm D A E x2
                                                                                  D
                                                                  It may not be easy, this blended family, but baby
Hey I might not really be your mother
                                                                  Cause what you do, what you do,
                                                                  D A E what you do for love, love
But that don't mean that I don't really love ya
And even though I married your father
                                                                                Bm D A E
                                                                  Bm D A E
That's not the only reason I'm here for ya
                                                                  For love, for love
                                                                                 Bm D
                                                                  Are you this real, my true love?
[PRE-CHORUS]
I think you're beautiful D A E
                                                                  Cause you're my baby, rejoice daily
I think you're perfect
                                                                  I believe love could bring us closer than blood
I know how hard it gets
                                                                  I remember having four step moms at nine
But I swear it's worth it, worth it
                                                                  Loved Christmas time and birthday was fly
[CHORUS]
                                                                  Ate at my sisters just for dinner cause the cookin' was bomb
Cause what you do, what you do,

what you do, what you do for love
                                                                  Her mother's supper made me love her like she took me to prom
There ain't nothing, there ain't nothing,
                                                                  And shoutout to my sisters on welfare
                                                                                F
there ain't nothing I won't do for us
                                                                  Flacko care, nobody else care
It may not be easy, this blended family, but baby
                                                                  And shoutout to the step sisters and the step brothers
           Bm
Cause what you do, what you do,
                                                                  And god-sisters, who eventually slept with us
what you do, what you do for love, love
                                                                  Real love, but you did it alright, alright
                                                                  I'm here for you
[INSTRUMENTAL] Bm D A E
[VERSE]
                                                                  Everything is alright, alright
I know it started with a little drama
                                                                  Cause what you do, what you do,
I hate you had to read it in the paper
                                                                  {\color{red} {\sf D}} {\color{red} {\sf A}} {\color{red} {\sf E}} what you do, what you do for love
But everything's over with me being your mama \begin{tabular}{ll} Bm & D & A & E \end{tabular}
Baby everybody here you know adores ya
                                                                  There ain't nothing, there ain't nothing,
[PRE-CHORUS]
                                                                  there ain't nothing I won't do for us
And I think it's beautiful
                                                                  It may not be easy, this blended family, but baby
I think it's perfect
                                                                  Cause what you do, what you do,
                                                                        D
   Bm
I know how hard it gets
                                                                  what you do, what you do for love, love
But I swear it's worth it, worth it
                                                                  That's just what you do, yeah (for love)
                                                                                Bm D
                                                                  For love of the babies (for love)
Cause what you do, what you do,
                                                                            Bm D A
                                                                  We're a blended family (for love)

Bm D A E
what you do, what you do for love
                                                                  And it's alright (for love)
There ain't nothing, there ain't nothing,
                                                                  Said it's alright!
