

Alicia Keys - So Done

```
I'm livin' the way that I?want
                          tom:
              Eb
                                                                                Fb7M Cm7
                                                           I'm?livin'?the way that?I want
Intro: Bm7 G7M Eb7M Cm7
      Bm7 G7M Eb7M
                                                                                 Bm7 G7M Eb7M
                                                           I'm livin'?the way that I want
[Refrão]
                                                                                  Bm7
                                                           I'm livin' the way that I want
         Bm7 G7M Eb7M Cm7
'Cause I'm so, so done
                                                           [Segunda Parte]
                Bm7
Guardin' my tongue, holdin' me back
                                                           Hmm, livin' the way
            Eb7M
I'm livin' the way that I?want
                                                                 Cm7
                                                                                               Bm7 G7M
         Bm7 G7M Eb7M Cm7
                                                           Wonder how I could let you get in the way
'Cause I'm so, so done
                                                            Eb7M
                                                           Oh no, oh-oh
               Bm7
Fighting myself, goin' through Hell
                                                           Bm7
                                                                  G7M
                                                           People keep changin'
                      Eb7M
I'm livin'?the way that I want
                                                              Eb7M
                                                                      Cm7
                                                           Faces why I'm so jaded
                      Bm7 G7M
                                                           Bm7 G7M
Face it, I feel like I'm fadin'
I'm livin' the way that I?want
                     Eb7M Cm7
I'm?livin'?the way that?I want
                                                           Eb7M
                      Bm7 G7M Eb7M
                                                           Takin' back, na-ah-ah
I'm livin'?the way that I want
                                                           [Pré-Refrão]
                       Bm7
I'm livin' the way that I want
                                                           Bm7 G7M
[Primeira Parte]
                                                           Oh my God (God)
                                                                       Eb7M
                Eb7M
                                                           I wish (Wish) I could be
                       Cm7
I lost control over all my energy
                                                                Bm7
Bm7 G7M
                  Eb7M
                                                           Be better than this
  Done so much damage to my heart
                                                            G7M
    G7M Eb7M Cm7
                                                           My God, wish Wish
  I've given in, I've changed my identity
                                                           Fb7M
                                                           I could be Oh-oh
      G7M Eb7M
   I didn't mean to go so far, umm-mm
                                                           [Refrão]
[Pré-Refrão]
                                                                    Bm7 G7M Eb7M Cm7
Bm7
                                                           'Cause I'm so, so done
Oh my God (God)
                                                                            Bm7
          Eb7M
                     Cm7
                                                           Guardin' my tongue, holdin' me back
I wish (Wish) I could be (Be) better than this
                                                                       Eb7M
                                                           I'm livin' the way that I?want
G7M
               Eb7M
My God, wish (Wish) I could be (Oh-oh)
                                                                     Bm7 G7M Eb7M Cm7
                                                           'Cause I'm so, so done
[Refrão]
                                                                          Bm7
                                                           Fighting myself, goin' through Hell
         Bm7 G7M Eb7M Cm7
                                                                                 Eb7M
                                                           I'm livin'?the way that I want
'Cause I'm so, so done
                 Bm7
                                                                                  Bm7 G7M
Guardin' my tongue, holdin' me back
                                                           I'm livin' the way that I?want
             Eb7M
                                                                                Eb7M Cm7
I'm livin' the way that I?want
                                                           I'm?livin'?the way that?I want
         Bm7 G7M Eb7M Cm7
                                                                                 Bm7 G7M Eb7M
'Cause I'm so, so done
                                                           I'm livin'?the way that I want
Bm7 G7
Fighting myself, goin' through Hell
                                                           I'm livin' the way that I want
                     Eb7M
I'm livin'?the way that I want
                                                           [Final] Bm7 G7M Eb7M Cm7
                                                                  Bm7 G7M Eb7M
```

Acordes

