

Allen & Lande - When Time Doesn't Heal

tom:

D

I thought the colors would come back

The days would return to something i can understand

I believed winter would change

Turning into spring someday soon

But the ice won't melt

[Segunda Parte]

I thought the memories wouldn't be so strong

And all would fade away

And i could move on

I believed i'd found something new inside

To chase away the darkness in my mind

But i still cannot find

[Refrão]

Not a single soul is crying

When the world around is dying

Nobody can feel what i feel

Does anybody hear me?

Well, sit right here beside me

Let me tell you about

When time doesn't heal

[Terceira Parte]

Seems like my wounds are too deep

The pain won't leave me

Will it ever go away?

I thought the cold would disappear

And the sun would come and melt this frozen world i live in vain

[Refrão]

Not a single soul is crying

When the world around is dying

Nobody can feel what i feel

Can anybody hear me?

Come and sit right here beside me

I will tell you about

When time doesn't heal

[Ponte]

Oooooooooooooooooo

Ouuuuuuuuu yeaaaaaaaaaaaaah

When will my wounds ever heal ?

Ouuu yeaaaaaaaaaahhhh

Come on and heal me now

[Refrão]

Not a single soul is crying

When the world around is dying

Nobody can feel what i feel

Does anybody hear me?

Or sit here right beside me

I will tell you when time doesn't heal

Not a single soul is crying

When the world around is dying

Nobody can feel what i feel

Does anybody hear me?

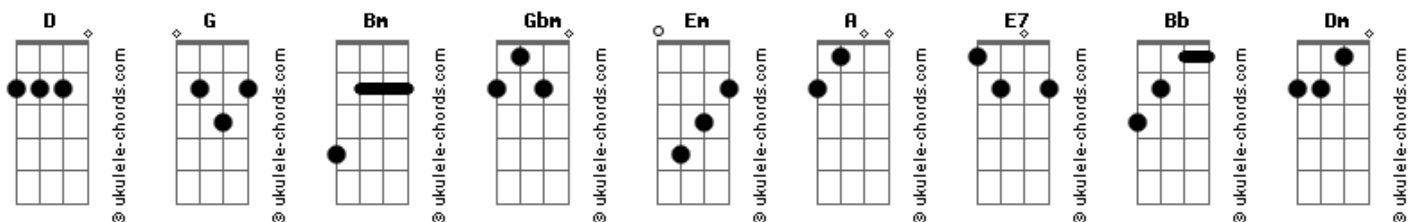

Or sit here right beside me

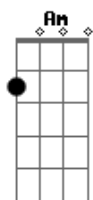

I will tell you when time doesn't heal

(G Bm)

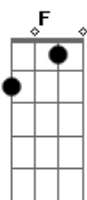

Time just won't heal
