

Allie paige - Comes And Goes

tom:

Intro: Abm Dbm B E

[Primeira Parte]

I could live out how I feel
Or I could trust in words You say
I could stay here all my life
And never see a season change
Oh, it might not be tomorrow
When I see the end draw near
And I might not get my answer
The one I desperately want to hear

[Refrão]

But, oh, I believe
That peace is a person
And love's not a feeling
That comes and goes
Yeah, You see my heart
And You know where it's broken
You're holding the pieces
You're making them whole

I could fill up every moment
With something to pass the time
Or I could sit here in the silence
And find Your voice somewhere inside
When all I have to bring is questions
Show me how to see Your side

And I will hang on to Your promise
They keep me from drifting with the tide
[Refrão]

But, oh, I believe
That peace is a person
And love's not a feeling
That comes and goes
Yeah, You see my heart
And You know where it's broken
You're holding the pieces
You're making them whole

Yeah, oh, I believe
That peace is a person
And love's not a feeling
That comes and goes
You're holding my heart
Like an anchor in strong winds
Constant in the midst
Of the ebb and flow

You're holding my heart

Yeah, love's not a feeling
That comes and goes
