

Amanda Palmer - In My Mind chords

Tom: G

Intro: G C D C

G
In my mind

D
In a future five years from now

D
I'm 120 pounds

C
And I never get hungover

G
Because I will be the picture of discipline

D
Never minding what state I'm in

C
And be someone I admire

D
And it's funny how I imagined that I would be that person now

D
But it does not seem to have happened

C
Maybe I've just forgotten how, to see

C
That I'm not exactly the person that I thought I'd be

G
And in my mind

C
In the faraway here and now

D
I've become in control somehow

C
And I never lose my wallet

G
Because I will be the picture of discipline

D
Never fucking up anything

C
And I'll be a good defensive driver

D
And it's funny how I imagined that I would be that person now

D
But it does not seem to have happened

C
Maybe I've just forgotten how, to see

C
That I'll never be the person that I thought I'd be

G
And in my mind

C
When I'm old, I am beautiful

D
Planting tulips and vegetables

C
Which I will mindfully watch over --

G
Not like me, now

C
I'm so busy with everything

D
That I don't look at anything

C
But I'm sure I'll look when I am older

D
And it's funny how I imagine that I could be that person now

D
But that's not what I want, if that's what I wanted then I'd be giving up somehow

C
How strange to see ---- that I don't want to be the person that I want to be

G
And in my mind

C
I imagine so many things

D
Things that aren't really happening

C
And when they put me in the ground,

G
I'll start pounding the lid, Saying "I haven't finished yet -

D
I still have a tattoo to get

C
That says 'I'm living in the moment'."

D
And it's funny how I imagined that I could win this winless fight

C
But maybe it isn't all that funny that I've been fighting all my life

D
But maybe I have to think it's funny if I wanna live before I die

C
And maybe it's funniest of all to think I'll die before I actually see

C
That I am exactly the person that I want to be
