[Primeira Parte]

Am C
Dying seems like an ancient tale
G F7M
A drunkard told me once
Am
For you grew up fast
C
And grew up weak
G F7M
You never land a punch
Am C
In the coldness of your eyes
G F7M
I see the type of man you are
Am C
Too afraid to be the same
G F7M
Too afraid to stray too far

(Am C G F7M)
(Am C G F7M)

[Segunda Parte]

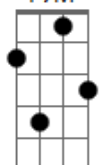

Am C
We drove that night to the town
G F7M
Where the old folks curse the new
Am C
Never thought we would hold
G F7M
Something borrowed something blue
Am C
Memories last a lifetime
G F7M
But in my mind this was it
Am C
I look up to the milky way
G F7M
And dream of what exists

[Refrão]

C Am
Why walk when we can run
G F7M
You never date the youngest son
C Am
(But if you) Heed the word of every man
G F7M
You'll never leave their promised land
C Am
(But it?s) Hoping in the corners of your mind
G
You'll see the way I see
F7M C
And shine like you can shine
Am G F7M
I wish for you the best of life can be

[Terceira Parte]

Am C
Some people try to run away
G F7M
By staying deadly still
Am C
With you I've earned a different path
G F7M
We can put that in our will
Am C
You could spend a lifetime
G F7M
Blowing dreams and cigarettes
Am C
For you I put the lighter down
G F7M
And cashed in all my bets
