Am C G F

[Primeira Parte]

Am C
Dying seems like an ancient tale

G F
A drunkard told me once

Am
For you grew up fast

C
And grew up weak

G F
You never land a punch

Am C
In the coldness of your eyes

G F
I see the type of man you are

Am C
Too afraid to be the same

G F
Too afraid to stray too far

( Am C G F )
( Am C G F )

[Segunda Parte]

Am C
We drove that night to the town

G F
Where the old folks curse the new

Am C
Never thought we would hold

G F
Something borrowed something blue

Am C
Memories last a lifetime

G F
But in my mind this was it

Am C
I look up to the milky way

G F
And dream of what exists

[Refrão]

C Am
Why walk when we can run

G F
You never date the youngest son

C Am
(But if you) Heed the word of every man

G F
You'll never leave their promised land

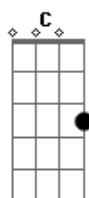

C Am
(But it?s) Hoping in the corners of your mind

G
You'll see the way I see

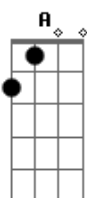

F C
And shine like you can shine

Am G F
I wish for you the best of life can be

[Terceira Parte]

Am C
Some people try to run away

G F
By staying deadly still

Am C
With you I've earned a different path

G F
We can put that in our will

Am C
You could spend a lifetime

G F
Blowing dreams and cigarettes

Am C
For you I put the lighter down

G F
And cashed in all my bets

[Refrão]
