C
My love she came to me

Saddle up your horses three

F
My father's land to keep

G
Is yours to follow me

C
All down to Beaufort flee

Mother's blessing we need

F
Sheep in Black Valley sing

G
The pleasant joy we bring

[Refrão]

C
All around the ditches

All around the Glen

F
See the mountain Peak

G
And hush the locals now

C
Maid in the morning singing

Babe in the cot now lye

F
Stir the auld wans shivering

G C
Tis not the night to die

( C F G )
( C F G )

[Segunda Parte]

C
It came a child was born

Feet fit the barleycorn

F
Land filled his heart with scorn

G
He took ship to New York

C
Caught on the docklands there

Met a wife so fair

F
We haven't seen nor heard

G
For two dozen a year

[Refrão]

C
All around the ditches

All around the Glen

F
Hold my still eyed stare

Acordes

G
For to keep my thoughts bare

C
I haven't long to give

I have not one to hold

F
When the long day comes

G C
I'll accept what I'm told

( C F G )
( C F G )

[Terceira Parte]

C
And now the ivy leaves

Creep up the walls on me

F
The broken barren trees

G
Reflect no life in me

C
The palest clouds above

The shallow river run

F
Let my dampened bones

G
Weary keep now at home

[Refrão]

C
All around the ditches

All around the Glen

F
See my fate is met

G
And lay me down on high ground

C
I wish to sit upon

The golden throne of skies

F
(And) watch valleys open

G C
And see it from your eyes

( C F G )
( C F G )

[Final]

C
All around the ditches

All around the Glen

F
See my fate is met

G
And lay me down on high ground

C
I wish to sit upon

The golden throne of skies

F
(And) watch valleys open

G C
And see it from your eyes
