

Amelia Watson - Gura Doesn't Know I Exist

tom:

G

Not long ago in my high school days
D I watched a girl from so far away
Em C But every time she passed me by D G I turned my head away and quietly sighed
C D And when she walked by her hair would dance
G Em Secret tango that only I could understand
C D7 And when she asked me for the time of day
G I look her in the eyes and quietly say

G C
Oh, gura, gura
D Do you have any clue who I am?
Em C Listen up 'cause I'll tell you once
D G And I'll explain myself the best that I can
G C Woah, gura, gura
D You don't know me so I'll have to persist
Em C Kinda shy so no wonder why
D G Gura doesn't know I exist

G C
Past the class, I followed her
D G Let her tour, leave her undisturbed
Em C And if she ever stopped and turned around
D G Get so nervous I stare at the ground
G C Then one day in photography
D C Find a contact print that I cannot believe Em C And there she was staring back at me
D G So I took her up so quietly

Ahh

G C
Oh, gura, gura
D Do you have any clue who I am?
Em C Listen up 'cause I'll tell you once
D G And I'll explain myself the best that I can
G C Woah, gura, gura
D You don't know me so I'll have to persist
Em C Kinda shy so no wonder why
D G Gura doesn't know I exist

G C
1/178
D Has benn a day that I come to hate
Em C As I walked into the video store
D G There she stood as my jaw fell to the floor
C D Tapping your toe, and waiting in line
G Em With a movie and ina by her side
C D7 Why did I bother, why did I care?
G About this girl named

Gawr gura

G C
Gura, gura
D You'll never get to know hu I am
Em C This is goodbye, so please don't cry
D G And I'll let you down softly as I can
G C Oh, gura, gura
D G Another name to cross off my list
Em C In another life it could've been nice but D G Gura doesn't know what she missed
