

Andrew Brantt - Losing a Friend

tom:

D

Intro: D

I've been looking for you

Gone to your house and found your room

Bm Saw the skies and missed a clue

A Saw you lying, you were so blue

D Drinking away all my problems

G It was so cruel and heartless

Bm I missed that times when we got high from our thoughts A D

[Refrão]

D 'Cause losing a friend is worse when youre wrong, oh D7M G7

A7 The silence let me die alone D

D I'm stuck in the past, I'm blind by my head G7

A7 And if you know what I mean, you can tell that I am sad D

[Verso]

D Hey friend, I can tell that you've been kinda alone

G In your shed, you think that you're a goner

Bm Don't be scared, I be carrying the light

A And even though I be crying and got my own mess to hide

D I try to make you see what you don't seem to see

G Because you've been waging wars inside of your

Bm Treehouse that now is burned down

A Now tell me why your hands smell kinda like gasoline D

[Refrão]

D 'Cause losing a friend is worse when youre wrong, oh D7M G7

A7 The silence let me die alone D

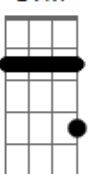

D I'm stuck in the past, I'm blind by my head G7

A7 And if you know what I mean, you can tell that I am sad D

Em

Hey you, why don't you answer me?

Em

Where are you? Why don't you even call me?

Em

Should I send a letter?

Em

Would you respond like that?

Em

Would it all end like this?

C7M

How would that make you feel?
