

Andy Grammer - Lunatic

Tom: G

Intro: B E E E (2x)

Verso 1:

I've got five bucks sitting at a coffee shop

I just wrote a lyric that made me stop

Think about the world and what I got

It's a beautiful, beautiful day

I've got dreams for food and hope for drink

A new chance coming every time I blink

Sunset dripping off the thoughts I think

It's a beautiful, beautiful day

Pré-Refrão:

And maybe I should care more about safety

But I can't ignore or betray these voices singing

You can do this, you can do this

You are not a lunatic

Crazy would be changing your mind

You can do this, you can do this

You are not a lunatic

Crazy would be leaving it behind

Verso 2:

I've got five bucks waiting on a matinee

I love to see films in the middle of the day

Same movie seen a different way

I don't think that makes me crazy

And I start work on the opposite side, of the clock

Tic tok clubs open at nine

I like to rock till the early daylight

Write music till five, this is my life

I will wiggle in a straight jacket forever

This is not some slight disease we can try and cure

This is one thing in my life that I know for sure

There is no turning back now

And maybe I should care more about safety

But I can't ignore or betray these voices singing
