

Andy Gullahorn - Roast Beef

tom:

Intro: A

E A
He had roast beef for his last meal

D A
His brothers went to market and to home

E A
He was cut off from his family

D A
Because he wanted to find freedom on his own

E D
He saw his big chance for an escape

E D
In helicopter rotating blades

A D
And said goodbye to the pigsty

E E A E
Quick as a guillotine he was gone

Gbm D A
All his brother's jealous hearts were broken

A D E
?Cause something was afoot there in that shoe

Gbm D
But they all stuck together

Db4 Gbm Bm E E
?Cause there's nothing they could do

A
He went from right there in the middle

D A
To smack dab in the center of attention

E A
He was picked up, he was cradled

D A
He was given his own freezer bag to live in

E D
And for the first time in his long life

E D
He felt the sunshine on every side

A D
So he set sail like a hangnail

E E A E
And waved back to the shore goodbye

Gbm D A
His brothers always said it was so crowded

A D E
Well maybe now they'd finally have some space

Gbm D
But they were out of balance there

Db4 Gbm Bm E E
without him in his place

Gbm Bm
So he came back from vacation

A E E
Out of family obligation

Gbm Bm
And rejoined with those four vandals

A E E E E
For the sake of wearing sandals

A
Now we can't say he did not try

D A
He gave up all his chances to be free

E A
But once you've felt that kind of sunshine

D A
You can't go back to the way you used to be

E D
So when I look down and remember

E D
Something's missing in the middle

A D
May it always be a symbol

E E A
One day that will be me
