

Anella - Tennessee Love Song

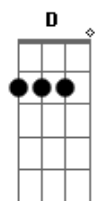

tom:
Intro: Em D Bm C
Em D Bm C
Em D Bm C

[Verse 1]
Late nights, you pick up when I call you
'Cause you know when you need me, I got you
It's okay to be scared if you're lonely
You can put it on me
So come on, what's the way you cut the lies down
If you're lost in your head cause it's too loud
It's okay to be scared if you're lonely

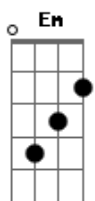

[Chorus]
Let me show you how to get the feeling gone
A double shot of somethin' sweet or somethin' strong
And chase a buzz like we can't get enough of it
And keep the clear coming all night long
Isn't nothing like a drunk ride home
Triple digits on your tab at last call
To get the blood running
Can't get enough of it
We tip and run and we've Found drunken in love like a

[Bridge]

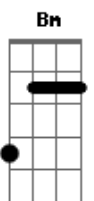

Acordes

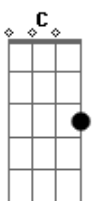

© ukulele-chords.com

© ukulele-chords.com

© ukulele-chords.com

© ukulele-chords.com

You remind me of a nicotine daydream
High school, eighteen
Drunk until the sun rise
Somewhere on the beach
Bumping Springteen on some fifteens
Cooler full of cheap beers
Sitting in the back of my Jeep
It used to be simple
Now you say it's messing with your mental
It's okay to be scared if you're lonely, yeah
[Chorus]
Let me show you how to get the feeling gone
A double shot of somethin' sweet or somethin' strong
And chase a buzz like we can't get enough of it
And keep the clear coming all night long
Isn't nothing like a drunk ride home
Triple digits on your tab at last call
To get the blood running
Can't get enough of it
We tip and run and we've
Found drunken in love like a Tennessee love song
Wohoo, a Tennessee love song