

Angel Olsen - Summer

tom:

Intro: A G

[Refrão]

A B A G
Took a while, but I made it through
A B A G
If I could show you the hell I'd been to
A B A G
Kept climbing 'til one day I looked back
A B A G
Was so high, I couldn't think to land

[Verso 1]

A F G A
And then one moment I was blown away
F G A G
And there was nothing left that I could say or do

[Refrão]

A B A G
Took a while, but I made it through
A B A G
If I could show you the hell I'd been to
A B A G
Lost the light, but then the sun was shining
A B A G
Couldn't hide it and I wasn't trying

[Verso 2]

A F G A
And all those people I thought knew me well
F G A
After all that time, they couldn't tell

F G A
I lost my soul, was just a shell
A G
There was nothing left that I could lose

[Refrão]

A B A G
Took a while, but I made it through
A B A G
If I could show you the hell I'd been to
A B A G
Lost the light, but then the sun was shining
A B A G
Couldn't hide it and I wasn't trying

[Verso 3]

A F G A
Was I becoming what I had to be?
F G A
Was that the truth I was supposed to see?
A G
I may have never found my way to you
A F G A
And all those summer days were like a dream
G A
Woke me from a restless sleep

Made me quiet, had me weak

And all the weight of all the world came rushing through

[Final] A C F G
A C F G
A C F G
A C F G
A G F G A
