

Anjos Do Hanngar - Dreams Could Be Real

tom:

Intro: [E D^{bm} B E D^{bm} B E]

We could have given more embraces
 We could have lived times of love
 I could have told you love was all
 You could have showed where I belong

Oh, time is gone

Now it's too late

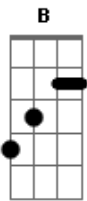

But if I could turn back time
 I'd risk some precious other way
 And I'm sure not giving back
 We'd be beyond enough good friends

Ooh, never been gone

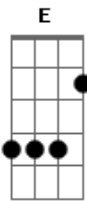

Ooh, without your love

That dreams could be real
 Not only to dreamers
 To other feelings that once were dreamers
 They were so real, real
 Ooh, never been gone
 Ooh, without your love no, no, no
 Their dreams could be real
 Not only the dreamers
 But you are the feeling that once we dreamed
 That was so real, real
 That dreams could be real
 Not only the dreamers
 But all the feelings that we dreams
 That was so real, real
