

Anna Blue - So Alone

Tom: E

My face against the window pane
A tear for every drop of rain

I am so lonely and so sad
You're the reason that i'm feeling bad
I am so lonely and so sad
Living in a dream i've never had

My face against the window pane
A tear for every drop of rain
I'm living like already i have died
Have died

Emptiness, a present past
A silent scream to shatter glass
I have to go; it's time for me to fly

E B

I am so lonely and so sad
You're the reason that i'm feeling bad
I am so lonely and so sad
Living in a dream i've never had

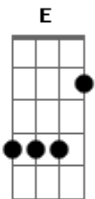

(Wake me with your kiss)

Who will care if i'm not here?
If suddenly i disappeared?
No one's gonna notice it at all
Dying flowers in my hand
I'm vanishing from where i stand
It isn't yet too late to get the truth

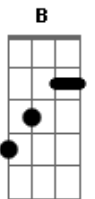

I am so lonely and so sad
You're the reason that i'm feeling bad
I am so lonely and so sad
Living in a dream i've never had (4x)

(wake me with your kiss)
