

Annie Lennox - No More I Love You's

Tom: A

Do bi do bi do do oh
 Do bi do bi do do oh
 Do bi do bi do do oh
 I used to be lunatic from the gracious days
 I used to be woe-be-gone and so restless nights
 My aching heart would bleed for you to see
 Oh but now
 (I don't find myself bouncing home, whistling button-hole tunes to make me cry)

No more "I love you's"
 A language is leaving me

No more "I love you's"
 Changes are shifting outside the words
 (The lover speaks about the monsters)

I used to have demons in my room at night
 Desire, despair, desire, so many monsters
 Oh but now
 (I don't find myself bouncing home, whistling button-hole tunes to make me cry)

No more "I love you's"
 A language is leaving me
 No more "I love you's"
 Changes are shifting outside the words
