

Antemas - On The Earth

```
I'm on The Wall
                                                                                                                                 tom:
                                                                        Abm (forma dos acordes no tom de Am )
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    First time ever
                                                                                                                                Afinação: Eb Ab Db Gb Bb Eb
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    C
Intro: C Dm Am G
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   A plenitude of songs and peace
[Primeira Parte]
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   Designed by the pieces from the space
   C
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    [Solo] Am F C G
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  Am F C G
Am F G Gbm Em
Wondering
Have I found my way?
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    [Pré-Refrão]
Knowing I can't change my fate
Facing the fears to ignite the flame
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   Stayed and sang
                                                            Am
Feeling the shake of the graves
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   Brought by the wind
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   F Am G
Living my life as I've dreamt
Going to east from the west
Dodging myself from the past
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    [Refrão]
I could hear the wind spreading sounds over
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    Am
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   Forevermore
                                                                 Am
Land, rivers, seas and the air
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   Locked inside my wonderland
The forest and rivers inside of it
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    I'm on The Wall
Fought all night long to survive again
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    First time ever
Old Moon has witnessed all the way
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    C
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   A plenitude of songs and peace
                                                            D
                                                                                              G
The Sun will rise every day
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   F
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    Forevermore
Oceans and creatures inside of it
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   Rock and metal from the space
Waters falling from a flying land
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   Will ever fall
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   Now I'm better and distant
[Pré-Refrão]
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    Flying for years I am
Stayed and sang
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    [Final]
Brought by the wind
                                               Αm
Living my life as I've dreamt
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   In heaven, we get used to breath % \left( 1\right) =\left( 1\right) \left( 1\right)
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     D
[Refrão]
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    In hell, we?re getting used to death
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   With large skies of blue
Forevermore
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    I am on the Earth
Locked inside my wonderland)
                                              Em
```

Acordes

