

Antínoo - I Have a Woman Inside My Soul

tom:

[Primeira Parte]

I have a woman inside my soul
 Her eyes somber and sad
 She waves her hand to try to reach me
 But I can't hear what she says

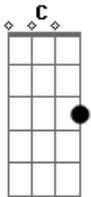

[Refrão]

I wish I knew what she says
 I wish I knew what she wants
 I wish I knew what she says to me
 I wish I knew what she means to me

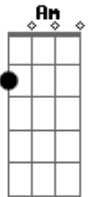

[Segunda Parte]

I see an asphalt road inside my soul

It's pale even in a warm summer's day
 It stretches into the mist and calls me
 But I don't know what it takes

[Refrão]

I wish I knew what it takes
 I wish I knew what it gives
 I wish I knew what it says to me
 I wish I knew what it means to me

[Refrão]

I wish I knew what it reads
 I wish I knew what it says
 I wish I knew what it says to me
 I wish I knew what it means to me
