

Aqualung - Brighter Than Sunshine

tom:

I never understood before, I never knew what love was for My heart was broke, my head was sore, what a feeling Tied up in ancient history, I didn't believe in destiny
 I look up you're standing next to me, what a feeling
 What a feeling in my soul, love burns brighter than sunshine
 Brighter than sunshine, let the rain fall, I don't care
 I'm yours and suddenly you're mine
 Suddenly you're mine, and it's brighter than sunshine
 I never saw it happening, I'd given up and given in
 I just couldn't take the hurt again, what a feeling I didn't have the strength to fight, but suddenly you seemed so right
 Me and you, what a feeling

What a feeling in my soul, love burns brighter than sunshine
 It's brighter than sunshine, let the rain fall, I don't care
 I'm yours and suddenly you're mine, suddenly you're mine
 And it's brighter than the sun, it's brighter than the sun
 It's brighter than the sun, sun, shine Love will remain a mystery, but give me your hand and you will see
 Your heart is keeping time with meeee
 What a feeling in my soul, love burns brighter than sunshine
 It's brighter than sunshine, let the rain fall, I don't care
 I'm yours and suddenly you're mine, suddenly you're mine
 What a feeling in my soul, love burns brighter than sunshine
 It's brighter than sunshine, let the rain fall, I don't care
 I'm yours and suddenly you're mine, suddenly you're mine
 And it's brighter than sunshine
