

Arctic Monkeys - One Point Perspective

tom: Eb
Dancing in my underpants Eb
I'm gonna run for government G
I'm gonna form a covers band and all Cm Eb7
And back there by the Baby Grand Ab
Did Mr. Winter Wonderland Abm
Say: Come here kid, we really need to talk? G Cm
Bear with me, man Ab
I lost my train of thought (Gm)

Eb
I fantasise and call it quits G
I swim with the economists Cm Eb7
And I get to the bottom of it for good Ab
By the time reality hits Abm
The chimes of freedom fall to bits G Cm
The shining city on the fritz Ab
They come out of the cracks Abm

Thirsty for blood

(Gm)

Cm Gm Fm
Oh, just as the apocalypse finally gets prioritised
And you cry some of the hottest tears you ever cried Bb Cm
Multiplied by five Gm Fm
I suppose the singer must die E7M
[Solo] Eb G Cm Eb7
Ab Abm Gm Cm
Eb
Singsongs around the money tree G Cm Eb7
This stunning documentary that no one else unfortunately saw Ab Abm
Such beautiful photography, it's worth it for the opening scene G Cm
I've been driving 'round listening to the score Ab Abm
Or maybe, I just imagined it all Gm Cm
I've played to quiet rooms like this before Ab
Bear with me, man Abm
I lost my train of thought
[Final] Gm G Cm Ab Abm
Gm G Cm Ab Abm Eb

Acordes

