

Ariana Grande - Almost Is Never Enough

But in time my feelings will show
      D
                    D G Gm
                                                             ?Cause sooner or later, we wonder why we gave up
                                                             The truth is everyone knows oh ooh
I like to say we gave it a try
                                                             D (stop) D
              Gm
                                                             Almost, almost is never enough D (stop)
I like to blame it all on life
                                                             So close to being in love
D D
Maybe we just weren?t right
                                                             If I would have known that you wanted me
 Bm
But that?s a lie, that?s a lie
                                                             The way I wanted you, oh
And we can deny it as much as we want
                                                             Then maybe we wouldn?t be two worlds apart
  Bm
But in time our feelings will show
                                                             But I'm right here (right here) in other arms
?Cause sooner or later, we?ll wonder why gave up Bb7 A
                                                                  D (stop) D
                                                             And we almost, we almost knew what lo-ve was
The truth is everyone knows
                                                             But almost is never enough
Almost, almost is never enough

So close to being in love
                                                             And we can deny it as much as we want
If would have known that you wanted me
                                                             But in time our feelings will show

The way I wanted you
                                                             ?Cause sooner or later, we?ll wonder why gave up
                                                             The truth is everyone knows
Then maybe we wouldn?t be two worlds apart
           G
                                                             Almost, almost is never enough (is never enough, baby)

Gm D (stop)
But right here in other arms

And we almost, we almost knew what love was \begin{tabular}{c} \end{tabular}
                                                             So close to being in love (so close)
But almost is never enough
                                                             If would have known that you wanted me
                                                                     Gm
                                                             The way I wanted you
If I could change the world overnight
There?d be no such thing as goodbye
                                                             Then maybe we wouldn?t be two worlds apart

You?ll be standing right where you were
                                                             But right here in other arms
                                                                 D (stop) D

                                                             And we almost, we almost knew what love was Gm D
We?d get the chance we deserve
                                                             But almost is never enough
Try to deny it is as much as you want
