tom:
                                                               Am
             Dm F
                                                               Been feelin'
       Δm
Oh oh oh oh
                                                               Mentally, physically weak (uh-uh, uh-uh)
A few weeks ago I saw you front row
                                                               Boys blowin' up my phone (uh-uh, uh-uh, uh)
And my heart stopped at the sight (ooh, yeah)
                                                               They just ain't you, oh, baby
Thought you were solo (thought you were solo)
                                                               I'm meant to be on my own (uh-uh, uh-uh)
                                                               But just before I go (uh-uh, uh-uh, uh)
But you got a girl, though (but you got a girl, though)
And my life ain't been the same
                                                               There's something you should know
                                                               And boy, I
Been feelin'
Mentally, physically weak (uh-uh, uh-uh)
                                                               I fantasize about it all the time
Boys blowin' up my phone (uh-uh, uh-uh, uh)
                                                               If you were mine
                                                               I'd give this pussy to you nine-to-five, five-to-nine
They just ain't you, oh, baby
                                                                                         Dm
I'm meant to be on my own (uh-uh, uh-uh)
                                                               Tryin' to behave, but I'm feelin' some type of (way) way
But just before I go (uh-uh, uh-uh, uh)
                                                               That just ain't me
There's something you should know
                                                               Oh oh oh oh
And boy, I
                                                               (I could never do anything like that)
I fantasize about it all the time
                                                               (I mean, I would, but I'm just too nice, and too hot)
If you were mine
                                                               Mentally, physically weak
I'd give this pussy to you nine-to-five, five-to-nine
                                                               Boys blowin' up my phone
      G
                        Dm
Tryin' to behave, but I'm feelin' some type of (way) way
                                                               They just ain't you, ooh, baby
That just ain't me
                                                               I fantasize about it all the time
A few months later, you're still tog?ther (oh, babe)
                                                               If you were mine
And you just can't tell m? why (why?)
                                                               I'd give this pussy to you nine-to-five, five-to-nine
So, boy, stop pretendin' (yeah)
                                                                                        Dm
                                                               Tryin' to behave, but I'm feelin' some type of (way) way
'Cause I won't keep waitin'
                                                               That just ain't me
I'm out the door, bye, bye, bye (I'm totally leaving right
